

Name That Book!

Trivia Game

Use these sentences from the Grades 3-5 current Sunshine State Young Readers Award Program for a great trivia game!

Olivia Bean, Trivia Queen by Donna Gephart

“A Paper lands on my desk. There are thirteen unlucky questions on the front side and eight more on the back, including one essay question. Gulp.” (p. 31 PB)

“I think about that amount of money: $28,800.00. That’s a fortune for twenty minutes work.” (p. 71 PB)

“Why can’t a boy be nice to me all the time and forget about the unfortunate hula hoop incident once and for all?”(p. 97 PB)

“I guess I fall asleep eventually, because when I open my eyes, sun streams into my room, bouncing off bright yellow walls. I need to quit waiting for someone else to do it and paint my room a less obnoxious color.” (p. 103 PB)

“I know this one. Of course I know it. Mom read this book to me twice when I was younger.” (p. 141 PB)

“The drive to DC will take about three hours.” (p. 168 PB)

“At breakfast, I find another stack of index cards beside the cereal bowl.” (p. 212 PB)